Gary Peters is the new U.S. Senator in the 114th Congress.

Senator Peters was born in Pontiac, Michigan and has lived his entire life in the Greater Detroit area. He graduated from Rochester High School and went on to Alma College where he earned a B.A. in Political Science. Peters later went on to earn an M.B.A. in Finance from the University of Detroit Mercy, a law degree from Wayne State University Law School and an M.A. in Philosophy from Michigan State University with a focus in the ethics of development. For 22 years, Senator Peters worked as an investment advisor and served in the U.S. Navy Reserve. He began his public service as a Rochester Hills City Councilman in 1991, three years later was elected to the Michigan State Senate and in 2008 to the U.S. House of Representatives. Currently, Senator Peters serves on the following committees: Senate Commerce, Science and Transportation; Homeland Security and Government Reform; Small Business and Entrepreneurship and the Joint Economic Committee. Senator Peters and his wife Colleen have three children.
