

Shabbat Service & Tu b'Shvat Celebration

For families that include members who have special needs

Free and open to the public | All ages welcome

Saturday, January 24 , 10:30—11:15 a.m.

Experience the joy of Shabbat and celebrate the upcoming holiday of Tu b'Shvat in a sensory-friendly, "no-hush" atmosphere of acceptance and joy.

The goal of our service is to be a comfortable, welcoming service for all members of your family, including those members who have special needs.

Please RSVP to Marci Dickman at mdickman@bethemet.org or 847-869-4230 ext. 310 by January 16. When you RSVP, you will receive a social story to prepare you for the program.

Please Include your name, number of people attending, age of the individual(s) with special needs, nature of the special need, and any dietary restrictions.

Service will include:

- Singing led by Cantor Arik Luck
- Meet and greet the Torah
- Puppet show by Joann Dardick
- Tu b'Shvat take-home project
- Snacks

Beth Emet בית אמת
THE FREE SYNAGOGUE

1224 Dempster • Evanston, IL 60202

