

Wondering who you really are and how to deal with life?

If you're like most young women, you hear messages all the time that tell you things like, "Beautiful girls are worth more than other girls" and "No one can really understand you." The truth is, you have great worth and are uniquely and wonderfully made. God knows and loves you inside and out.

Interested in learning more?

Please join us for a Community Book Club for High School Girls

Dates: Tuesdays, February 3-March 10, 2015

Time: 7:30-9:00 p.m.

Location: Sovereign Grace Church, Room 204, 5200 Ox Road, Fairfax, VA

We are a Christian book club and our books take a biblical perspective. The first book will be *Lies Young Women Believe by Nancy Leigh DeMoss and Dannah Gresh. If you'd like to join us, please read pages 11-39 before the first meeting on February 3rd. If have questions or you'd like us to order a book for you ($10 charge), email Laures Merryman at merryfam@verizon.net.

The facilitators are Ellie Oakley of Knollwood Community Church and Laures Merryman of Sovereign Grace Church.

We look forward to meeting you!

*The book's ISBN number is: 978-0802472946