

LION ELLIS STOCKMAN TURNS 100!

Congratulations to Lion Ellis Stockman on the occasion of his 100th Birthday on February 26, 2015. He celebrated with his family and fellow Lions recently. Lion Ellis is a member of the Batesburg-Leesville Lions Club has been a Lion for 65 years. He is a Melvin Jones Fellow and has received an International President's Certificate of Appreciation for his humanitarian service.

Born in Prosperity, South Carolina in 1915; Lion married his late wife, Mary Ruth in 1937. He served in the U. S. Navy on PT Boat 17 during World War II. After he returned home from the war, Lion Ellis moved to Batesburg-Leesville where he became the principal of Batesburg-Leesville High School in 1946. He served there for thirty-one years and retired in 1977. Generations of students were blessed to have Mr. Stockman as principal.

We are very proud to honor this exemplary South Carolina Lion.

VDG David Dority presented Lion Ellis Stockman with a certificate of appreciation in honor of his 65 years in Lionism.

Fellow Lions and family members celebrate with Lion Ellis on his 100th birthday and his 65 years in Lionism
