

Cooking Demonstration at Local Shelter

The Aiken Mid-Day Lions Club recently held a Cooking Class for the teenage girls and boys at Helping Hands of Aiken County, a local shelter for abused and neglected children.

Chef Jeff Jenik and his assistant Lion Shelia Taylor used this event as an opportunity to not only share their knowledge and expertise in the kitchen by preparing a wonderful dish for the teens to sample, but the teens were also advised on table settings and proper table etiquette. Each teen was presented with a placemat demonstrating a formal place setting as well as informal place setting. The evening ended with decorating Valentine cookies using pastry bags with star tips!

The Aiken Mid-Day Lions Club has been volunteering its services at the shelter for over 20 years.
