BUSINESS & COMMUNITY EXCELLENCE AWARDS

Large Business Excellence Award: Awarded to a business with thirty-one or more employees. This company is a leader within their field through strong business planning, strategy implementation and monitoring, quality customer service, staff development programs, innovative concepts, and overall business growth.

Manufacturing Excellence Award: Awarded to a business or organization that delivers excellence in service to and/or operational practices within the manufacturing or industrial services sector. This company demonstrates sound business practices and utilization of industry systems, and are leaders in their field when compared to industry benchmarks.

Non-Profit Business Excellence Award: Awarded to a program that has made a significant difference in the lives of the people they serve; produces outcomes that exemplify innovative excellence; and features best practices of not-for-profit businesses.

Small/Medium Business Excellence Award: Awarded to a business or organization with thirty or fewer employees. This company is a leader within their field through strong business planning, strategy implementation and monitoring, quality customer service, staff development programs, innovative concepts, and overall business growth.

Lifetime Excellence Award: Awarded to an individual who has directly contributed back to the wider community. This may not be solely in the form of financial contributions, but also the development of, hosting of, or general contribution to programs or practices that benefit the general community. The actions of the individual have resulted in positive social impacts.

Excellence in Local Government Award: Awarded to an individual who has made significant contributions to local government, including service above and beyond what is required by their position; contributions to improved government through involvement in other professional organizations and agencies; significant local/regional improvements attributable to the individual's service; has earned the admiration and respect of the general public; has achieved success in raising the prestige of local/regional government service; is focused on the greater good of the community.

President's Award for Excellence in Community Service: Awarded to an individual who has made a substantial contribution to benefit the local community through volunteerism.
