

Come see Conestoga bring the story of Beauty and the Beast to life! True to the classic Disney tale, this production follows the adventures of Belle as she tries to find happiness in her provincial town, only to get swept up in a far more complicated story.

While searching for her father in the forest, Belle comes across a magnificent castle hidden in the woods. She soon discovers that there is much more to this castle than meets the eye—new friends, magic, and a curse that could change them all. What begins by chance becomes an enchanting tale of friendship, determination, and true love.
