

NAHB WANTS YOU TO SUCCEED

$6,882

Add up the dollar value of NAHB's advocacy victories and you're talking real money – an average of $6,882 per housing start for a typical home builder in 2014. That's a big number, and a big step toward success. Below are selected advocacy victories in 2014.

$1,125

Homeowner Flood Insurance Affordability Act saves business for builders and remodelers.

$767

Extending energy tax credits stimulates new construction and remodeling.

$808

U.S. Supreme Court Clean Air Act ruling benefits multifamily builders.

$510

Delayed Affordable Care Act requirements saves costs for the building industry.

$347

Extending mortgage insurance tax deduction preserves new home sales.

These numbers represent the value per housing start a typical builder will see as a result of key NAHB advocacy victories in 2014. Some members will experience more of these benefits than others.
