

The Porch at Temple Beth El

February 2015

SHABBAT EVENING SONGFEST AND FAMILY SERVICE

Friday, February 6th, 5:30 pm

Little ones can't make it through Friday night services? We've got you covered. Join Cantor Mary and Ms. Patty for our first Shabbat Evening SongFest. Meet us in the front of the Blumenthal Sanctuary. Shabbat preneg (our pre-oneg!) begins at 5:15, come by early for a bite to eat. We encourage you to stay for the 6:00 pm Family Service and leave whenever is appropriate for your family.

TOT SHABBAT SPONSORED BY CJP

Saturday, February 14th, 9:00 am - Join Cantor Mary and Ms. Patty for singing, dancing, and praying! Our dynamic, musical service will be followed by a special craft and snack sponsored by the Charlotte Jewish Preschool. E-mail ThePorch@beth-el.com to volunteer or for more information on helping to fund Tot Shabbat. Save the date for another special Tot Shabbat: March 14th with musical guest Dan Nichols!

HAVDALAH+A MOVIE

Saturday, February 21st, Ballantyne Village

5:30 dinner; 6:45 havdalah; 7:15 Film - Belle and Sebastian

Enjoy dinner and a movie with The Porch and Temple Beth El. Register at www.beth-el.com for to purchase tickets at our group discount and select a restaurant for dinner.

HAPPY HOUR

Tuesday, February 10th, 6:00 pm - Blackthorne Restaurant and Bar, 11318 N. Community House Road, #200

SHABBAT SUPPER CLUB

This is The Porch's premier experience. We have many active and unique Shabbat Supper Clubs: with couples, singles, and families with younger children. Shabbat Supper Clubs meet once a month and organize their own Shabbat dinners at homes, restaurants, and sometimes very creative places. Email for more info or request a group by registering at www.beth-el.com.

The Porch at Temple Beth El

is a community for those 22-45 and parents and families with children under 6 - roughly - who's counting? We serve a broad and diverse community at Temple Beth El. For more info, email ThePorch@beth-el.com and visit us at www.facebook.com/ThePorchTBE.