About the Media Release

Since we'll be recording our Hangout Training Sessions, and you might be in them, during registration you'll be asked to agree to a media release form. (Think of it as a great way to show others that you were part of the training and know what you're doing.) We're showing you the text of the release form here so you're not surprised by it when you get to the next step of the registration process.

Media Release: I understand that the Hangout Mastery membership group will have voluntary active participation of myself and other members in recorded hangout training sessions & discussions. I hereby grant permission for Ronnie Bincer and his assigns to
