

FoodPicks

Wong Ah Yoke
Food Critic recommends

STEAK AT HUBER'S BISTRO

Huber's Butchery in Dempsey Hill has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

Its adjoining bistro has also expanded and is now in a smaller building next to the shop. It not only serves lunch now, but dinner too.

The original small menu of salads, sausages, burger and steak will be expanded soon to include soups and pork and lamb main courses.

In the meantime, you can get a pretty decent steak for $28 (right). The 220g US Prime Sirloin Steak may not have the flavour of a prime cut in a fine-dining restaurant, but is certainly better than most similarly priced steaks around town.

The Huber's Beef Burger With Bacon & Gruyere Cheese ($15.50) is good too, with a thick 170g beef patty that is juicy and cooked just right. But the caramelised onion in the burger is a bit too sugary for me.

And if you feel like continuing your meat feast at home, pop into the store. There is a huge array of raw meats, some marinated. I got a freshly made Kurobuta sausage with wasabi that was a treat for breakfast the next day.

WHERE: Huber's Bistro, 22 Dempsey Road MRT: Holland Village

WHEN: 11am to 10pm (Tuesday-Friday), 9.30am to 10pm (Saturday & Sunday). Closed on Monday

TEL: 6737-1488

AUTUMN AT HUBER'S BISTRO

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

Its adjoining bistro has also expanded and is now in a smaller building next to the shop. It not only serves lunch now, but dinner too. The original small menu of salads, sausages, burger and steak will be expanded soon to include soups and pork and lamb main courses.

In the meantime, you can get a pretty decent steak for $28 (right). The 220g US Prime Sirloin Steak may not have the flavour of a prime cut in a fine-dining restaurant, but is certainly better than most similarly priced steaks around town.

The Huber's Beef Burger With Bacon & Gruyere Cheese ($15.50) is good too, with a thick 170g beef patty that is juicy and cooked just right. But the caramelised onion in the burger is a bit too sugary for me.

And if you feel like continuing your meat feast at home, pop into the store. There is a huge array of raw meats, some marinated. I got a freshly made Kurobuta sausage with wasabi that was a treat for breakfast the next day.

WHERE: Huber's Bistro, 22 Dempsey Road MRT: Holland Village

WHEN: 11am to 10pm (Tuesday-Friday), 9.30am to 10pm (Saturday & Sunday). Closed on Monday

TEL: 6737-1488

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

Its adjoining bistro has also expanded and is now in a smaller building next to the shop. It not only serves lunch now, but dinner too.

The original small menu of salads, sausages, burger and steak will be expanded soon to include soups and pork and lamb main courses.

In the meantime, you can get a pretty decent steak for $28 (right). The 220g US Prime Sirloin Steak may not have the flavour of a prime cut in a fine-dining restaurant, but is certainly better than most similarly priced steaks around town.

The Huber's Beef Burger With Bacon & Gruyere Cheese ($15.50) is good too, with a thick 170g beef patty that is juicy and cooked just right. But the caramelised onion in the burger is a bit too sugary for me.

And if you feel like continuing your meat feast at home, pop into the store. There is a huge array of raw meats, some marinated. I got a freshly made Kurobuta sausage with wasabi that was a treat for breakfast the next day.

WHERE: Huber's Bistro, 22 Dempsey Road MRT: Holland Village

WHEN: 11am to 10pm (Tuesday-Friday), 9.30am to 10pm (Saturday & Sunday). Closed on Monday

TEL: 6737-1488

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

Its adjoining bistro has also expanded and is now in a smaller building next to the shop. It not only serves lunch now, but dinner too.

The original small menu of salads, sausages, burger and steak will be expanded soon to include soups and pork and lamb main courses.

In the meantime, you can get a pretty decent steak for $28 (right). The 220g US Prime Sirloin Steak may not have the flavour of a prime cut in a fine-dining restaurant, but is certainly better than most similarly priced steaks around town.

The Huber's Beef Burger With Bacon & Gruyere Cheese ($15.50) is good too, with a thick 170g beef patty that is juicy and cooked just right. But the caramelised onion in the burger is a bit too sugary for me.

And if you feel like continuing your meat feast at home, pop into the store. There is a huge array of raw meats, some marinated. I got a freshly made Kurobuta sausage with wasabi that was a treat for breakfast the next day.

WHERE: Huber's Bistro, 22 Dempsey Road MRT: Holland Village

WHEN: 11am to 10pm (Tuesday-Friday), 9.30am to 10pm (Saturday & Sunday). Closed on Monday

TEL: 6737-1488

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

Its adjoining bistro has also expanded and is now in a smaller building next to the shop. It not only serves lunch now, but dinner too.

The original small menu of salads, sausages, burger and steak will be expanded soon to include soups and pork and lamb main courses.

In the meantime, you can get a pretty decent steak for $28 (right). The 220g US Prime Sirloin Steak may not have the flavour of a prime cut in a fine-dining restaurant, but is certainly better than most similarly priced steaks around town.

The Huber's Beef Burger With Bacon & Gruyere Cheese ($15.50) is good too, with a thick 170g beef patty that is juicy and cooked just right. But the caramelised onion in the burger is a bit too sugary for me.

And if you feel like continuing your meat feast at home, pop into the store. There is a huge array of raw meats, some marinated. I got a freshly made Kurobuta sausage with wasabi that was a treat for breakfast the next day.

WHERE: Huber's Bistro, 22 Dempsey Road MRT: Holland Village

WHEN: 11am to 10pm (Tuesday-Friday), 9.30am to 10pm (Saturday & Sunday). Closed on Monday

TEL: 6737-1488

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

Its adjoining bistro has also expanded and is now in a smaller building next to the shop. It not only serves lunch now, but dinner too.

The original small menu of salads, sausages, burger and steak will be expanded soon to include soups and pork and lamb main courses.

WONG AH YOK'S PICK

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

WONG AH YOK'S PICK

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

WONG AH YOK'S PICK

Huber's Butchery has moved to bigger premises in the same area and now occupies two shopping floors in a standalone building that used to be Carnivore restaurant.

