

Creative Writing Summer Camps

Each creative writing summer camp takes students through the process of creating a short story. Teachers facilitate a blend of theater games, creative activities, discussion, instruction and writing time. Instructors individualize learning experience as they confer with students during writing time. On the last day of the workshop, young writers will have the opportunity to share their masterpieces with family and friends.

Invent A Story (Ages 7-9)

Young writers will explore the essential elements of story: character, setting, conflict, and plot development while inventing their own unique short stories.

Christ Church: Portola Valley

June 22-26, 9:00-12:00pm, $245

Novelist's Workshop (Ages 9-12)

Young writers will explore the finer points of story development. Students are free to come to camp with a novel-in-progress, or start from the very beginning.

Christ Church: Portola Valley

June 22-26, 12:30-3:30pm, $245

July 13-17, 12:30-3:30pm, $245

Magic Trunk: Exploring Stories (Ages 5-7)

Each day, students will open the Magic Trunk to discover costumes, props, picture books and other treasures that will launch creative exploration of the parts of stories.
