

787-9

BUILD SOMETHING AMAZING

IT at Boeing supports our entire organization as we set new and higher standards in everything we do. Join us to learn more about how you can play a role in shaping the future of aerospace.

Positions available now. See reverse for details.

boeing.com/careers

Boeing is an equal opportunity employer supporting diversity in the workplace.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY OPPORTUNITIES

Internships and entry-level positions are available for undergraduate and graduate students with the following majors:

Preferred

- Computer engineering
- Computer science
- Informatics
- Information systems and technology
- Management information systems
- Information Security

Also Considered

- Electrical engineering (with software experience)
- Human-centered interaction and design
- Software engineering
- Other engineering disciplines (with programming experience)

Desired Attributes

- Strong academic performance (GPA of 3.0 or above preferred).
- Well-rounded background across multiple technical disciplines.
- Exceptional organizational and collaboration skills demonstrated through leadership positions on teams and/or in student or civic organizations.
- Interest and enthusiasm related to IT, aerospace and a career with Boeing.

Opportunities

Summer Internship Requisition: 1500000075

- Begin in May or June 2015 and last for approximately 12 weeks.
- Are appropriate for candidates pursuing bachelor's or master's degrees.
- Locations are available in SC, WA, MO and CA.

Entry-Level Requisitions opening weekly

- Begin in 2015
- Students with bachelor's degrees are preferred.
- Direct-hire positions focus on specific IT areas that best align with your skill set.
- Information Technology Career Foundation Program (ITCFP) assignments are in Application Development, IT Infrastructure, Information Security, and Customer Engagement.

Be specific on your resume about the qualifications you have that match the above IT-related majors and preferred background. Include specific examples when appropriate to ensure that your skills and qualifications are clearly communicated to the selection team.

Apply Online

boeing.com/careers

U.S. Person status is required for these opportunities.