

78th ROCHESTER ROTARY AWARD

Each year, the Rochester Rotary Club presents its historic Rotary Award to an individual who most exemplifies the motto of Rotary International:

Service Above Self

The first Rochester Rotary Award was presented to Sol Heumann in 1936. Awarded annually since then, the award recognizes a community member who has made significant contributions to others and to our region.

A Rochester Rotary Award Recipient:

- Demonstrates exceptional community spirit.
- Touches the lives of many citizens.
- Serves as a positive role model.
- Promotes a philosophy of “Service Above Self”.
- Shares wisdom and knowledge to empower others.

The Nomination Process

We welcome and encourage nominations from both non-Rotarians and Rotarians. Please take a moment to review our guidelines and process to ensure that your nominee is considered for this prestigious award.

Guidelines:

- Neither nominator or nominee has to be a Rotarian.
- The nominee will be considered for their contributions to the community beyond their vocation.
- The nominee can not currently hold or be running for political office.
- The nominee must live in the Greater Rochester Community.

How to Proceed:

- Complete the attached nomination form.
- Write a short essay in support of your nominee and why you feel he or she is deserving of the award. Please be concise and limit your remarks to a maximum of two pages.
- Submit letters from additional supporters of your nominee. (While we are sure your nominee has many advocates, please send no more than three letters.)
- Deadline for submission is Friday, February 13, 2015.
- Attach your supporting documents to the form and send to:
Rochester Rotary Award Committee
Rochester Rotary Club
180 Linden Oaks, Suite 200
Rochester, NY 14625

Once We Receive the Nominations:

- We will send out a letter of confirmation upon receipt of your nomination package.
- Certain nominators may be asked to advocate for their nominees in front of a panel from the Rotary Award Committee.
- The Rotary Award Committee will make its recommendation for the award recipient to the Rochester Rotary Club Board of Directors.
- The Rotary Award nominator and recipient will receive notification in March 2015.
- A special award presentation will take place in the late Spring 2015.
