

2015 Nye Family Reunion

We invite you to attend the 2015 NYE FAMILY REUNION on Saturday, September 19th!

As usual, it will take place at the Grange Hall next door to the Benjamin Nye Homestead & Museum, 91 Old County Road, East Sandwich, MA. The hall will be open at 9 AM for checking in and fellowship, with coffee and doughnuts available. The business meeting begins at 10. During the meeting members will have an opportunity to share greetings, comments, and ask questions. Please let us know if you wish to speak for longer than five minutes so that we can schedule properly. At the conclusion of the meeting we will assemble in front of the Homestead & Museum for a group photo.

AFTER THE MEETING - The hour or so between the group photo and 1 PM lunch will be an opportunity for attendees to socialize, visit the Homestead and Museum, walk the beautiful grounds, including The Neck, across from the Homestead.

LUNCH - This year we are returning to an old favorite: a New England clambake, prepared for us by the Osterville Fish Company in the Grange Hall. Three choices are available: Lobster, steak or chicken, served with clam chowder, mussels, steamers, corn, potatoes, linguicia, coleslaw, dinner rolls and watermelon. You may also attend the reunion without participating in the meal.

EVENING PROGRAM - Return to the Grange Hall at 7 PM for more fellowship, refreshments. At 7:30 Executive Director and historian John Nye Cullity will present a slideshow and talk entitled “Cedarville Revisited”. This presentation will show how the Nye Homestead and watermills became the nucleus of a small but bustling settlement, which became known as Cedarville. Threaded throughout the talk will be readings from “Our Village, or, Old Times and New” , a wonderful poem about the neighborhood written in 1857 by Joseph B. Hall, who grew up in the Hall Tavern a stone’s throw from our Homestead & Museum.
