

NEW YORK CITY

MARCH 5-8, 2015

Join the Friends of Belmont as we first travel north to Fairfield, Connecticut for a special presentation by our curator Joanna Catron at the Bellarmine Museum on the campus of Fairfield University. The topic will be Gari Melchers: American Impressionist at Home and Abroad, a special exhibit showcasing 23 works of art from the Belmont collection.

Following a reception for the opening of the show we will continue into the heart of Manhattan for a three night stay at the Marriott Upper East Side on 49th St. During our visit we will have a personal tour of the American Wing at the Metropolitan Museum of Art led by curator Sylvia Yount. We will also visit the renowned Frick Collection housed in a beautiful Gilded Age mansion. Your afternoons and evenings will be free to explore the wonders of Manhattan—maybe even catch a Broadway show!

Cost of the trip is $795 per person for members; $835 per person for non members based on double occupancy. Single supplement add $330. This price includes deluxe motor coach transportation, driver gratuity, hotel accommodations with breakfast included, and museum fees. Payment is requested with the completed reservation form by February 10. If paying by check make payable to Gari Melchers Home and Studio. Mail payment and form to Gari Melchers Home and Studio, attn. Betsy Labar, 224 Washington Street, Falmouth, VA 22405.

Conditions: Gari Melchers Home and Studio will not be held responsible for any acts or events beyond its control, including, but not limited to loss, damage, injury to person or property, illness, strikes, transport delays, acts of government or war, and is released from all claims arising from such situations or acts. The right is maintained to decline, accept or retain any person as member of this trip at this time.
