Black History & Heritage Day

Grafton Tyler Brown

Presentation by: John Lutz

“A Pioneering Black Artist in Victoria” Sunday, February 15th 1:30 – 4:30 pm

Grafton Tyler Brown was the first professional artist to make Victoria his home and the first Black professional artist in California and the Pacific Northwest.

Presenting his story is John Lutz, Associate Professor of History at the University of Victoria. Dr. Lutz's research focuses on the history of settler-aboriginal relations and the history of race and racism in BC. He is also co-director of the Great Unsolved Mysteries in Canadian History Project.
