with (Grower): _____ agrees to experience the products and concepts outlined below. In exchange for the product, all parties agree to comply with the following:

- Use the entire product in one field / location
- Grower to show the Retailer rep where the field is located and allow photographs to be taken and used, however, no other information such as name or location shall be disclosed without express written consent of the Grower
- Allow participating manufacturer / seed company to do in-field visits during the 2013 growing season
- Plant only one variety in treatment fields to reduce variables in treated vs. untreated analysis.
- Electronic fertility, planting, yield history, application and harvest data will be shared with Retailer for analysis
- Allow Retailer to share knowledge with Premier Crop and United Suppliers, Inc. reps
- The identity of individual grower's data will be kept confidential by Premier Crop, United Suppliers and participating Retailers. Data that is pooled with other growers' data will be pooled in a manner that maintains individual confidentiality. Grower does consent to Premier Crop, United Suppliers, Inc. and Retailer utilizing Grower's data in the aggregate to allow comparisons and draw conclusions regarding results, and to present those results and trends as a group to others. In effect, low-level benchmarking of results is the goal of the trials. The individual data remains the property of the individual Grower.
- All parties agree that this analysis shall in no way be construed to violate any anti-trust or other laws, and all parties agree to not misuse any data for any improper purpose
- Failure to comply will result in the Grower being charged for all product used in research
