

American Academy of Pediatrics
Legislative CONFERENCE

Please complete the following questions and submit your application to LegislativeConference@aap.org by noon ET on Friday, February 27, 2015.

Information on 2015 Legislative Conference Registration Scholarships: The AAP Committee on Federal Government Affairs is offering AAP members who have an interest in advocacy an opportunity to attend the AAP Legislative Conference on April 12-14, 2015. The Committee is offering a scholarship to cover the conference registration fee of $575. For more information on the conference, visit www.aap.org/legcon.

- a. Who can apply: Any AAP member in good standing who is a medical student, resident, fellow or physician
- b. What's covered: 6 scholarships are available for medical students, residents, fellows and physicians to cover the registration fee for the Legislative Conference. Lodging and travel expenses are not covered by the scholarship.
- c. Deadline: Noon ET on Friday, February 27, 2015

Applicant information

Name:

Email:

AAP member ID:

Title/institutional affiliation:

Training status (please check one):

Medical student:

Resident:

Fellow:

Physician:

If medical student, academic institution:

If resident or fellow, residency/fellowship program:

If physician, AAP chapter:

By checking here, I indicate that I have cleared my calendar and if awarded this scholarship, I will be able to attend Legislative Conference in Washington, DC April 12-14, 2015:

Scholarship questions (all applicants must complete the questions)

Describe your interest in advocacy (250 words or less):

What advocacy training have you received through the national AAP or from your AAP chapter? (100 words or less)

Explain your commitment to parlaying what you learn during Legislative Conference into action when you return home: (250 words or less)

How will you partner with your chapter and/or residency program in these efforts? (250 words or less)

Please note: If chosen to receive a scholarship, you may be asked to write about your experience for a newsletter article or an online discussion forum. In addition, based upon the number of applications received, the Legislative Conference Scholarship Review Committee reserves the right to ensure applicants represent a diverse geographic range.