

1. On Valentine's Day in Japan, women present chocolate to the men in their lives. The favor is returned one month later on White Day, following the sanbai gaeshi rule. The term means:

a) thrice the return

http://www.oddee.com/item_98477.aspx

2. Only one U.S. president learned to speak English as a second language. Growing up in the state of New York, Martin Van Buren learned English in school. Van Buren's first language was:

c) Dutch

<http://www.rosettastone.com/blog/what-american-president-learned-english-as-a-second-language/>

3. When sperm whales communicate on or near the sea surface, they use clicking sounds known as codas. When they dive down to hunt for their primary food source, they switch to echolocation. What primary food source are they hunting?

a) giant squid

<http://www.enchantedlearning.com/subjects/whales/species/Spermwhale.shtml>