An evening with Dr. David Celio, Ph.D., author of

"The Twelve Principals of Effective Parenting"

St. John School Parent Association Speaker Series 2014/15

Tuesday, March 10th in Egan Hall

Refreshments at 6:30pm | Presentation at 7pm

- A book just for parents who need some guidance in raising families, addressing the challenge of young children, tweens and teens. It takes an experienced and unique therapist to intervene effectively with these complex and confusing issues.
- With 35 years consulting experience and five children of his own, Celio has done research on many troublesome issues. "I have learned to be humble, patient, and skillful with interventions which have helped many families over the years. I hope to be helpful to you." – David Celio
- Come hear firsthand from Dr. Celio about dealing with anxiety and anger in children, what is within the range of 'normal' and other hot topics.

Scrip and Spirit Wear will be available before and after the presentation
