Republican Party

Chairman and President of The Trump Organization

Public Overview:

- Candidate Donald J. Trump has a very poor reputation among America citizens in regards to his views of individuals with disabilities.
- He has a very extensive track record violating the Americans With Disabilities Act, having been sued multiple times for violations in his building properties and other entrepreneurial ventures that did not abide by ADA compliances.
- One of Donald Trump's most infamous controversies that began what is now commonly referred to as "Trump's war on people with disabilities." He imitated a famous New York Times reporter who has a diagnosed and openly noticeable physical disability by mocking his hand motions and facial expressions.

Campaign Website Statement:

Does not have an official campaign statement regarding disabilities

Quotes:

- In an attempt to defend his actions, Trump tweeted out a statement as follows: "Virtually no-one has spent more money in helping the American people with disabilities than me." –Donald Trump
