

As President Hillary will:

- Realize the promise of the Americans with Disabilities Act.
- Improve access to meaningful and gainful employment for people with disabilities.
- Provide tax relief to help the millions of families caring for aging relatives or family members with chronic illnesses or disabilities.
- Education programs that cover issues like consent and bystander intervention, not only in college, but also in secondary school.