

Disability Pride March

July 27, 2015

This inaugural Disability Pride March in Cincinnati is a platform to publically embrace disability and empower people with all abilities to raise their voices and pursue their dreams.

We will walk from City Hall to Fountain Square on the morning of the ADA 25 Cincinnati event on Fountain Square, celebrating the 25th anniversary of the signing of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

If you or your organization would be interested in participating, please complete the form on the back of this flyer.

Questions? Call Skip at 513-510-5177

Park under Fountain Square for $2 an hour. A Metro bus will pick us up at 9:10 am and shuttle us to Cincinnati City Hall for free. You can also meet us at City Hall at 9:30 am if that is easier. We will have a proclamation from the City and a kick-off for the March, then at 10:00 am we'll walk to Fountain Square, probably arriving about 10:45. There, we will have a moment of remembrance for advocates who came before us, and on whose shoulders we stand.

There will be entertainment, information tables, awards and fun on the Square until about 2 pm.

Yes! I/we want to participate in the first ever Disability Pride March in Cincinnati!
