Answer...

Alla Fligelman grew up in Moscow and spent many summers vacationing in Sochi! Morah Alla has been a Hebrew teacher at the Silver Academy for seven years. Her classes are filled with creative teaching methods, including plays, music and dance. Her students benefit from her education at the Theater and Music Schools in Moscow, as well as the regular Russian Math School. Alla is truly an international educator, having taught in four different countries: Russia, Israel, England and now the USA. She brings a wealth of gold-medal experience to our school!

On a personal note, Alla and her husband, Ilya, have three children, Dalia, Samuel and Benjamin, who are all students at the Silver Academy.
