St. Francis in the Woods

You're Invited!

March 13-15, 2014 - Join your fellow St. Franciscans for a weekend away at the beautiful Camp Sylvester.

What can I do in the woods?

The possibilities are endless!

- Take a walk, go for a hike
- Read a book
- Go skiing at Dodge Ridge (fingers crossed there's snow!)
- Knit, crochet, craft
- Take a nap
- Make a new friend
- Worship around a campfire
- Eat s'mores every day
- Play board games
- Learn a new card game
- Unplug
- And oh-so-much more...

What is included?

Heated Dorm-style lodging at Camp Sylvester. Not camping.
Hot showers & Flush toilets
Use of a new hall where we can congregate and enjoy each other's company.

Most of your food:

FAQ

Is this event just for families?
- No! It is for everyone – invite your dinner group, committee members, or the new person in the next pew over! This is a great opportunity to get to know everyone better.

Who do we know is coming?
- Our rector (if she can "camp" so can you!), assistant rector, and deacons
- Most of the vestry

Anything else?
- Ask the committee members: Desie Mehrabian (desieme@yahoo.com), Kelly Castellon, Janet Karzmark, Robin Biesterveld, or Jeannie Lavoie
