

The Changing Landscape of Community and Residential Supports for Persons with Disabilities

For professionals, self-advocates, and family members presented by the Task Force on Jewish Residential Alternatives for Adults with Disabilities

4-Part

Webinar Series:

1 Life Planning
Mar. 18, 2015
1 PM EST

2 Emerging Adulthood
Jun. 17, 2015
1 PM EST

3 Residential Programming
Oct. 21, 2015
1 PM EST

4 Changing Legislation
Dec. 16, 2015
1 PM EST

The series is offered free of charge to all AJFCA network professionals and available to clients of AJFCA members and professionals and clients at non-member organizations for a fee. Session $30, Individual $10. For more information and to register, go to: <http://tinyurl.com/ntgtyqq>

Part 1 Webinar Series Life Planning March 18

Presenter: Meredith Lee, Educational Coordinator and Family Consultant for the LifePlanning® program, a free service of Alpert Jewish Family & Children's Service & Levine Jewish Residential & Family Service

Learn how to be strong advocates and better prepared for future decision making. Topics include: benefits | legal and financial planning | residential options | vocation.

Part 2 Webinar Series EMERGING ADULTHOOD: Successful Transitioning from June 17 School to the Adult Community

Presenter: Deborah Fisher, Strategic Change Consultant at Jewish Foundation for Group Homes

For adults who either do not fit into existing programs, or who preferred to take time to focus on a particular skill or skills that would open up more opportunities for future jobs, school, or living and social arrangements. The webinar focuses on elements from of a program that promotes transitions of young adults with disabilities from the safety and familiarity of their schools to the adult community.

Part 3 Webinar Series Residential Programming October 21

Join AJFCA members in a discussion with Steven Eidelman and H. Rodney Sharp, Professor of Human Services Policy and Leadership at the University of Delaware and former Executive Director of The Arc of the United States, to learn about best practices for residential programming and the philosophy of funding residential programs in the future.

Part 4 Webinar Series Changing Legislation December 16

Presenter: Allan Bergman, CEO of High Impact Consulting

A review changes to Medicaid and other policies impacting persons with disabilities and their families. This session will provide important information for both professionals and self-advocates interested in understanding changes for federal policy throughout 2014 and 2015 and anticipating future legislative changes.