

Deborah Johns graduated from New York University with a degree in Marketing. She has worked in the Advertising, Cable, and Telecommunications industries during her corporate career, starting out in the financial end of advertising with J. Walter Thompson. Deborah then moved to Sales at Showtime Networks and, after a short sabbatical, moved into Human Resources. For the last 18 years Deborah has focused on recruiting technical talent, first for Sprint and then for QTS Data Centers.

She has recruited every type of role from a Marketing Vice President, to Machine to Machine Sales Engineers, to Financial Analysts. Most of these positions were located in the Southeast of the country. Deborah has always been very involved with the projects to create opportunities to support women's career initiatives.

She is active with women's organizations such as Women in Cable, National Association of College Women and Women in Technology.

Deborah has also just launched an internet business centering on the production of quality pet accessories. She creates and produces all of the products herself.
