About Jill's House

Jill's House, a full-service overnight respite center, renews families through much-needed breaks while providing a safe, fun environment for children with special needs. This innovative 42,000-square foot, 45-bed respite resort for children ages 6 to 17 with intellectual disabilities and their siblings, is located in the Washington D.C. metropolitan area. Jill's House also serves families in Austin and Los Angeles through local partnerships.

Four-time CMA Female Vocalist of the Year, Martina McBride, was featured entertainer in 2014 along with Amy Grant in 2013. The 2015 celebrity entertainer will be announced soon.

Receiving no direct state or federal funding, Jill's House was created and is maintained through individual donations and grants.

The Impact of Jill's House:

- Since 2010, Jill's House has provided nearly 500,000 hours of hope and renewal to more than 500 families, 10% of whom serve in our military.
- An estimated 40,000+ children with special needs live in the greater Washington, D.C. area.
- About 50% of the children we serve have autism spectrum disorder (ASD); 20% have Down syndrome; 10% have a chromosomal disorder or genetic abnormality; and 20% have a wide array of diagnoses from cerebral palsy to brain injury.
- On average, Jill's House serves 427 child stays every month.
- Families who receive a full weekend of respite report a 73% reduction in stress.
- Every 28 hours a new family registers their child to stay at Jill's House.

With your support, you give the gift of Jill's House to a child with special needs and the gift of rest, hope and renewal to those who love them. Help us as we together celebrate special children and renew their families.

Please take a few moments to consider these opportunities to determine what sponsorship level works best for you. Your presence and partnership enable Jill's House to serve families and their children with special needs.
