

The New Jersey Association for the Education of Young Children Northwest Affiliate Proudly Presents: Ron Shuali

The Empowered Educator

This workshop will teach and demonstrate 3 innovative techniques on how to communicate more effectively with children and adults in your educational environment.

- Understand a new way to give a suggestion or correction without seeming negative, yet empowering them to make that change.
- Understand the why of "negative" behaviors and learn a technique to help people get past their wall of resistance to be successful.
- Understand how to show empathy in a stressful situation in order to disarm it and stop it from escalating.

Learn to shift the energy, improve teamwork and give helpful suggestions in a school environment.

Ron Shuali is an author, speaker and workshop presenter with expertise in the preschool and elementary school arena. He has spent over 15 years presenting helpful information in the education marketplace. Ron has spoken at national and regional conferences for organizations like the NAEYC, NJEA and the Goddard Systems.
