

Escambia County School District Transition Services Information Fair

The Escambia County School District Exceptional Student Education Department and Parents of the Panhandle Information Network (POPIN) are sponsoring the Transition Services Information Fair. The event will be held at:

Marcus Pointe Baptist Church
Building 4
6205 N. W Street

Friday, March 13, 2015 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M.

Exceptional Student Education (ESE) representatives and representatives from agencies throughout Escambia County will be available to answer questions regarding services available to students with disabilities. This valuable information will assist students with disabilities and parents with transition planning while in school and also from school to a post-school environment.

Presentations will be made by Agency Representatives and Employers throughout the event. You will leave with much needed information to assist you or your child with resources available in the community and helpful tips on obtaining and maintaining employment. Parents, students, teachers and other interested consumers are invited to attend.

For more information regarding this event, please contact Melinda Poe at 469-5557 or Alesia Carter at 469-5539.
