Award winning Mosquito Fleet Winery is preparing another tremendous celebration with the release of six of their newest wines - the 2012 vintage, said to be the best Washington vintage in years. The extravaganza, tagged "Grand Release 2012" will be held on 3/14 & 3/15 from 12:00 to 6:00 both days. The event will feature food pairings from Robin Hood restaurant in Union. Their specialty port style desert wine, Griffersen Reserve, will be served in chocolate cups.

The winery, located in Belfair, completed their sixth crush this fall. They have enjoyed some tremendous accolades along the way; having produced 'ninety point' wines, 'gold' and 'double gold' winning wines and recognition at several Northwest wine competitions and wine magazines. "It's a real honor to receive that recognition through the years... but we really see 2012 as our best yet!" said Dr. Brian Petersen, co-owner and winemaker for Mosquito Fleet.

Guests will receive all six wines, food pairings and chocolate morsels along with a logo glass and a $5 discount on any wine purchases for only $15 for the event. The event will feature live entertainment both days

"It's a very exciting event! Don't miss this one! We have some exciting surprises in store, food and entertainment will be spectacular, and of course we are elated with our 2012 lineup. It was an amazing year for Washington fruit" said Scott Griffin, co-owner of the Belfair Winery.
