Emergency Closing/Delayed Opening Information

There are numerous options to learn about the status of the schools during inclement weather or other emergencies:

- For school closings and delayed openings, you will generally be contacted via our Call System using the main phone number in our student database. Make sure that the main number is the one which you would like called. If you prefer to be notified by cell phone, make sure your cell phone is the main number. In case of emergency during the school day, our system will contact the primary and secondary phone numbers.
- Register for the District's E-News, the Falcon Flyer. You will receive immediate notification directly to your email of school closings and other alerts. You may register on our District webpage, www.burltwpsch.org.
- Visit Burlington Township Schools' Website at www.burltwpsch.org. The emergency information will scroll on the home page.
- Call the Burlington Township Schools Activities and Emergency Closing Line: (609) 387-1731
