

Canada

Tullos Wells

Canada's Honorary Consul in San Antonio

Mr. Wells has been Honorary Consul in San Antonio since June 23, 2005.

Mr. Wells plays an important role in the development of commercial and economic relations of Canada, engaging in public affairs, representational work, and other activities related to Canadian interests in San Antonio and South Texas. Such work includes dissemination of information materials, press inquiries and mass media relations, and the promotion of Canadian culture, trade, products and services.

Mr. Wells is a long-standing, active member of the South Texas community. Focusing on labor and employment law for more than 35 years, Tullos Wells has represented management in the full range of labor and employment matters and heads a comprehensive sports and entertainment practice. Mr. Wells also represents a number of privately held midcap and publicly traded companies, serves as outside general counsel to Overstock.com and represents companies in government and internal investigations.

Mr. Wells routinely handles a broad array of legal issues for numerous professional and amateur sports franchises, broadcast television and radio stations and major entertainment venues. Mr. Wells' representative sports clients include the NBA San Antonio Spurs, WNBA San Antonio Silver Stars, AHL San Antonio Rampage, and the NBA Development League Spurs Toros. During the years 2003-2012, he earned the distinction as one of the Top 50 Central and West Texas Region Super Lawyers by Texas Super Lawyer. He is also listed among The Best Lawyers in America.

Mr. Wells is an adjunct professor at the University of Texas at Austin and at Trinity University in San Antonio. He also serves as Managing Director of Kronkosky Charitable Foundation, a regional foundation funding non-profits in Bexar, Comal, Bandera and Kendall Counties of Texas.