

2015 Affordable Housing Awards Application

Thank you for your interest! In order to submit an application and have your development be considered for an award at the 2015 Affordable Housing Awards (AHA) Breakfast, the development must meet ALL the following criteria:

1. Development must be located in Orange County, California.
2. Development must be new rental construction or acquisition/rehabilitation rental that is affordable to families earning 30% to 60% of AMI.
3. Development must be placed in service between January 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015.
(note: development must not have been previously awarded the AHA award)
4. Developer applicant must be a member of the Kennedy Commission.

If the development meets all the criteria listed above, please answer the questions (listed below) by Friday, March 13, 2015 at 5 p.m. and submit via email to Linda Tang at lindat@kennedycommission.org.

Once received, the AHA committee will review the applications and make a selection to award a development.

Submittal Application Questions:

1. Development name:
2. Is this a new construction or acquisition/rehabilitation development?
3. Project description (i.e. number of units, affordability levels, green components, special features, community amenities etc.):
4. Funding sources:
5. Completion date (i.e. date when residents moved in):
6. What makes this development unique or stand out from the other developments in Orange County?
7. Were there any unique predevelopment/ design/ development challenges?
8. How many jobs were created or generated from this development?

If you have any questions, please contact Linda Tang at lindat@kennedycommission.org.