

ARE YOU BREAKING THE LAW?

If you create videos, presentations, training, video games or apps, you know how important good quality background music is. But where are you getting your music from? Are you using commercial music that you've downloaded from torrents or just played in the background from MP3s? If so, you're using unlicensed music tracks that you don't have rights to use.

In other words, you're breaking the law.

THINK YOU WON'T GET NOTICED?

An event filmmaker named Joe Simon filmed pro football player Tony Romo's wedding and put the video online. Simon used a song by Coldplay in the video. Coldplay's record label sent Simon a cease and desist, demanding ↓ Click Link Below ↓ the song's copyright. The fine was settled out of court.
