Super Shuttle is also available from IAH. The Houston Oblate community will assist with transportation if notice is given in writing by April 10, 2015 to Jenella (email garslayer@aol.com).

Conference Cost

$125 (Includes snacks, Continental breakfast Saturday and Sunday; Saturday lunch. Dinner Friday and Saturday evenings on your own.) Partial Scholarships are available on an as-needed basis.

Join meditators from around the US for an inspiring retreat with Fr. Cyprian Consiglio, OSB Cam. Fr. Cyprian is a Benedictine monk of the New Camaldoli Hermitage in Big Sur, CA, where he serves as prior. A musician, spiritual teacher, and scholar of spiritual traditions, Fr. Cyprian has given retreats and conferences around the world, and has published numerous collections of original sacred, world and liturgical music, as well as books and articles.

Based on the pioneering work of English Benedictine, Bede Griffiths, and his predecessor, Abhishiktananda, the French Benedictine formerly known as Fr.

Abhishiktananda

Henri le Saux, OSB, Fr. Cyprian's teaching incorporates the best of Eastern philosophy and practice with Western spirituality, toward Christian Mysticism of the 21st century, and aimed at the whole person – spirit, mind and body.

On-site Lodging

A limited number of simple, retreat-style single rooms with shared bath are available on the premises. Preference for these rooms will be given to National Council members who are staying through Sunday night. Please note that the Center is not equipped with an elevator and the rooms are on the second floor.

Off-site Lodging

A number of reasonably priced hotels are nearby, but none are walking distance to the retreat venue. Go to www.wccm-usa.org/upcoming-events/ to download a list of hotels.

The beautiful outdoor labyrinth is open for meditative prayer each day.
